IN THE LAST WEEK...

This week has been a fantastic Book Week! We have read so many wonderful books, listened to lots of exciting stories, and even written some of our own. We've solved puzzles, cracked mysteries, and explored hidden objects scattered around our school (you may even spot a few in this newsletter). We also tried to work out who our mystery readers were!

Children enjoyed reading with buddies from other classes and working in house teams to hunt down book-themed questions. It was lovely to see our families joining in too—both at our Look for a Book hunt on Monday and during The Big Read yesterday.

Across the school, classes have been diving into Pierre the Maze Detective, creating their own reports, stories, diaries, and letters inspired by his adventures.

Our Year 6 Librarians have been brilliant all week, setting up their own mystery in the library featuring Heidi and Hector the bookworms, as well as running a successful second-hand book sale.

A big thank-you, too, to the SSA for providing refreshments and helping to raise funds—see their total on their page of this newsletter.

And the fun isn't over yet! The Book Fair begins on Monday 23rd March, giving us another opportunity to raise money to buy even more books for our school library.

REMINDER

This is a reminder that children need to bring all the items they will need for the school day. The office will only contact parents to request essential items, such as glasses.

If children do not have the appropriate equipment for an activity—for example, wellies—we're sorry, but they may not be able to take part.
