IN THE LAST WEEK...

We would like to give a huge thank you to everyone who donated their unwanted wellies. These will be put to excellent use in our outdoor learning activities, including our WILD sessions. We also want to extend special thanks to Stowting Primary School for their generous contributions. Your support helps us continue promoting sustainability across the school.

Our School Council met this week to plan an exciting 'Break the Rules Day' for Friday 13th February. The children have selected six fun rules to break, and further details will be sent home today on an information slip.

Your child will bring home their Mid-Year reports today. If you have any questions or would like to discuss your child's progress, please contact your child's class teacher directly.
